(1) During occupation by Axis powers (1941 – 1944) Deputy Governor Georgios Mantzavinos followed (according to Mandatory Law 3004, 7/5/1941) the Greek government to London. Occupation-era governments in Greece fired Georgios Mantzavinos in 1941 and appointed Andreas Papadimitriou (3/7/1941– 18/11/1941) and Spyridon Hatzikyriakos (5/4/1943 – 5/10/1944) as Deputy Governors. Nevertheless, after the liberation all dismissals and appointments by occupation-era governments concerning members of the Administration of the Bank of Greece were declared null and void according to Law 89, 15/1/1945.
