

GOVERNORS	TERM STARTS	TERM ENDS
Alexandros Diomidis	21/04/1928	29/09/1931
Emmanuel Tsouderos (1st period)	31/10/1931	13/08/1935
Emmanuel Tsouderos (2nd period)	20/03/1936	10/07/1939
Ioannis Drosopoulos	10/07/1939	28/07/1939
Kyriakos Varvaressos <sup>(1)</sup>	04/08/1939	11/02/1946
Xenophon Zolotas (1st period, Co-Governor)	12/10/1944	08/01/1945
Georgios Mantzavinos	11/02/1946	02/02/1955
Xenophon Zolotas (2nd period)	05/02/1955	07/08/1967
Demetrios Galanis	07/08/1967	04/05/1973
Konstantinos Papayiannis	07/05/1973	09/08/1974
Panagotis Papaligouras	09/08/1974	24/10/1974
Xenophon Zolotas (3rd period)	26/11/1974	03/11/1981
Gerassimos Arsenis	03/11/1981	20/02/1984
Demetrios Chalikias	20/02/1984	20/02/1992
Efthymios Christodoulou	20/02/1992	01/12/1993
Ioannis Boutos	01/12/1993	26/10/1994
Lucas Papademos	26/10/1994	14/06/2002
Nicholas C. Garganas	14/06/2002	14/06/2008
Georgios A. Provopoulos	20/06/2008
(1) During occupation by the Axis powers (1941 – 1944) Governor Kyriakos Varvaressos and Deputy Governor Georgios Mantzavinos followed (according to Mandatory Law 3004, 7/5/1941) the Greek government to London. Occupation-era governments in Greece fired Kyriakos Varvaressos and Georgios Mantzavinos in 1941 and appointed first Miltiades Negrepontis as Governing Counsellor (24/4 – 3/7/1941) and then Demetrios Santis (3/7/1941– 20/1/1943) and Theodoros Tourkovassilis (19/4/1943 – 13/4/1944) as Governors. Nevertheless, after the liberation, all dismissals and appointments by occupation-era governments concerning members of the Administration of the Bank of Greece were declared null and void, according to Law 89, 15/1/1945.		