

SWETSWISE

Swetswise is a platform designed to provide access to all of the Library's online resources (both e-journals and online databases), and offers a variety of search options:

1. Publications

Search in the e-journals to which the Library has a subscription in print or electronic format.

2. Content search → Article search → Basic search → Search articles

Federated search

- in the e-journal articles to which the Library has a subscription in print or electronic format
- in the articles of publication series to which the Library provides access through its subscriptions to online databases such as Business Source Corporate, EconLit with full text, JSTOR, etc.

3. Content search → Publication search → All your publications

Search in the titles of publication series to which the Library provides access through its subscriptions to online databases such as Business Source Corporate, EconLit with full text, JSTOR, OECD E-Books, etc.

4. Content search → Database search

Search in the Library's online databases per database.
