

Programme of the 6th Data Collection Task Force Meeting

Thursday 15th April, Istanbul

- 9.00 – 9.40 Potential and pitfalls of reconstructing central bank reserves
(Clemens Jobst and Thomas Scheiber, Austrian National Bank)
- 9.40 – 10.20 New Romanian data on bond prices, exchange-rates and agio
(Alina Blejan and Brindusa Costache, National Bank of Romania)
- 10.20 – 11.00 Presentation of the Turkish data and subsequent discussion
(Serkan Yigit, Central Bank of the Republic of Turkey)
- Coffee Break
- 11.30 – 12.00 Introduction to the project on the history of European stock exchanges
(Pierre-Cyrille Hautcoeur, Paris School of Economics)
- 12.00 – 12.30 New data from the Ottoman mint records
(Coskun Tuncer, London School of Economics)
- 12.30 – 13.00 Reconstructing Serbian government debt before WW I
(Dragana Gnjatovic, Megatrend University Belgrade)
- Lunch-break
- 14.30 – 15.30 General discussion on the envisaged 2010 publication
(Chair: Thomas Scheiber, Austrian National Bank; Sofia Lazaretou, Bank of Greece; Kalina Dimitrova, Bulgarian National Bank)
- 15.30 – 16.00 Reconstructing Bulgarian commercial bank deposits
(Martin Ivanov, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences)
- Coffee Break
- 16.30 – 17.00 Presentation of the Albanian data and subsequent discussion
(Arta Pisha, Besa Vorpsi)
- 17.00 – 17.15 An update on the Bulgarian data collection efforts
(Kalina Dimitrova, Bulgarian National Bank)
- 17.15 - 17.30 An update on the Greek data collection efforts
(Sofia Lazaretou, Bank of Greece)
- 17.30 – 17.45 An update on the Serbian data collection efforts
(Milan Sojic, Ljiljana Djurdjevic)
- 17.45 - 18.00 Concluding Remarks
(Matthias Morys, University of York)