

EMMANOUIL MAVRAKIS

Economist

Education

1993: BA in Economics, Athens University of Economics and Business

1996: MSc in Economics, Athens University of Economics and Business

2010: PhD in Economics, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens

---

Previous Positions

2023 Aug. – present: Economist, Bank of Greece, Economic Analysis and Research Department

2023 Feb. – 2023 Jul.: Financial Stability Expert, European Central Bank, Stress Test Modelling Division, Directorate General Macroeconomic Policy & Financial Stability

2017 Oct. – 2023 Jan.: Economist, Bank of Greece, Economic Analysis and Research Department

2014 Oct. – 2017 Sep.: Economist, European Central Bank, Capital Markets and Financial Structure Division, Directorate General Monetary Policy

2014 Jan. – 2014 Sep.: Economist, Bank of Greece, Economic Analysis and Research Department

2013 Oct. – 2013 Dec.: Economist, European Central Bank, Monetary Analysis Division, Directorate General Monetary Policy

2012 Apr. – 2013 Sep.: Economist, Bank of Greece, Economic Analysis and Research Department

1996 Sep. – 2012 Mar.: Lecturer, Technological Educational Institute of Crete, School of Management and Economics

---

Publications

Statistical arbitrage strategies under different market conditions: The case of the Greek banking sector (with C. Alexakis). Journal of Emerging Market Finance, 2018, vol. 17(2), pp. 159-185.

Non-bank financing for euro area companies during the crisis (with A. Ferrando). In S. P. S. Rossi (Eds.), Access to bank credit and SME financing, 2017, Palgrave Macmillan Studies in Banking and Financial Institutions, Palgrave Macmillan.

---

Abnormal returns on CEFs in pre- and post-credit-crunch periods. European Research Studies, 2011, vol. 14(4), pp. 55-70.

Stock markets' linkages: an empirical investigation for long-term international diversification benefits (with C. Alexakis). Journal of Risk and Diversification, 2011, vol. 3, pp. 53-68.

Is moderate market performance in the U.S. a sufficient condition for abnormal returns on CEFs? (With C. Alexakis). International Advances in Economic Research, 2010, vol. 16(1), pp. 80-95.

---